

Attention: CUPE 1978 Health Science Professionals Members

Date: December 14, 2018

Subject: Meetings to vote on Tentative Collective Agreement

The Health Science Professionals' Bargaining Association (HSPBA) has reached a tentative agreement for its members across the province. The HSPBA entered into early talks with the Health Employers' Association of BC (HEABC) as part of a multi-sector bargaining strategy.

A complete summary of the tentative agreement is available at:

<https://bcchs.cupe.ca/2018/12/13/comprehensive-report-for-cupe-members-covered-by-the-health-science-professionals-collective-agreement-december-2018/>

A presentation on the tentative agreement will be repeated several times during each of the two-plus-hour blocks below. Members are encouraged to attend one of these sessions during their break from work or while off-shift to have details of the tentative agreement explained. Members of the CUPE bargaining committee will be on hand to answer any of your questions.

After receiving the information you need, you can vote on the tentative agreement:
